

Admiral Jerauld Wright USN who was Commander in Chief Atlantic during the period 1954-60 and retired in February 1960, has been recalled to active duty status and assigned to the Central Intelligence Agency where he will serve as a member of the Board of National Estimates.

This Board is the Director's (Allen Dulles') a senior advisory body dealing with the wide range of problems associated with the National Intelligence Estimates. There are 12 members of the Board, Civilian and ~~Military~~ Military, and Sherman Kent is the Chairman.

Admiral Jerauld Wright USN who was Commander in Chief Atlantic during the period 1954-60 and retired in February 1960, has been recalled to active duty status and assigned to the Central Intelligence Agency where he will serve as a member of the Board of National Estimates.

This Board is the Director's (Allen Dulles') a senior advisory body dealing with the wide range of problems associated with the National Intelligence Estimates. There are 12 members of the Board, Civilian and ~~Military~~ Military, and Sherman Kent is the Chairman.

mb